

Accelerated Master's Pathway Worksheet

Accelerated Master's Pathway (AMP) programs are designed to allow current UVM undergraduate students to initiate graduate coursework while still an undergraduate, thus decreasing time and cost to obtain the master's.

The purpose of this worksheet is to help prospective master's pathway applicants develop their academic plans in preparation for applying to their desired master's programs. Please note that this worksheet is for personal planning purposes only and is not an official document. All information included here must be transferred to the Graduate College Application to be considered for admission.
